What makes us different?

We build enduring relationships

Nexia's strength comes from the quality of personal relationships forged between member firms, and by member firms with their clients.

This ensures greater trust, responsiveness, and more effective delivery. Member firms communicate openly and clearly, which means there are no surprises when you work with a Nexia member firm. You are always supported by the right team with an experienced partner on every assignment, who is available for you. This helps member firms to think beyond the current assignment and invest in building long-term relationships.

We are business-minded

Our member firms are characterised by people who have an entrepreneurial spirit and who can relate closely to the small and medium sized enterprises and owner-managed businesses they serve.

Our Experience

Our client portfolio ranges from individuals and small businesses to complex, multinational companies and organisations. We have helped multinational clients explore the emerging African market by offering integrated professional advice and customised practical solutions to their challenging problems and have helped them to address their cross-border needs. We have delivered services to a range of multinational companies, including the following:

- Huawei.
- China National Petroleum Corporation

"ifm electronic is a German international group, specialized in automatism solutions... ifm electronic has founded a new subsidiary in Casablanca in Morocco... Since its creation, ifm Morocco is taking advantage of Nexia competencies as partner. ifm Morocco is using Nexia skills and advice in several matters as accounting, tax system and legal matters... Still today Nexia is supporting us in our daily business for reaching our growth target."

Eric Danezis

Gérant at ifm electronic sarl au.

Our member firms think like businesspeople, acting with a sense of purpose and bringing ideas to help their clients to develop and grow.

They spend time listening so that they know you and are able to provide tailored advice, based on their deep understanding.

We are globally connected

Our member firms are internationally minded, focused on supporting local companies as they grow and help their clients to venture confidently into new international markets. They will connect you with the right people and deliver local accounting, tax, economic and market knowledge around the world.

"I also want to give a big thank you to our super financial advisor (Eissa Refai) who I think is helping all of us in so many ways."

Mattias Sjoborg,

Chairman at Plena Holdings - a UK based group of companies

"We want you to know that we are very pleased with the quality of service your company provides. We sincerely appreciate your responsiveness and the way you conduct business. We have recommended your company to others because of our satisfaction with your service. We look forward to doing business with you for years to come."

Our international reach

We are all members of Nexia International (Nexia).

Nexia is the 9th largest global network of independent accounting and consulting firms, providing a comprehensive portfolio of audit, accountancy, tax and advisory services. Nexia International has consulting firms operating in over 725 offices with more than 258 member firms in over 122 countries.

The Nexia International Service Charter ensures we deliver our brand promise 'Closer to you' and our three brand values: Our enduring relationships, being business-minded and Being there for clients (Globally connected). Each value is underpinned by a clear set of commitments that explains the way Nexia member firms work and it is these commitments that form our Service Charter.
